

2025 Relay Team Handbook

Race Date: May 4, 2025

(Updated 4/23/25)

PRESENTED BY

Welcome to the Mt. Si Relay 2025

This booklet contains important information for the 42nd Annual Mt. Si Relay, May 4, 2025 presented by Eastside Runners. Team captains need to be familiar with everything contained in this handbook and to share it with team members. We strongly encourage all runners to read this material.

REGISTRATION

There will be no early packet pickup this year. All participants will pick up their packets on race day near the starting line, beginning at 4:30am.

Packets will include shirts, race numbers and pins. Packets will NOT include this booklet or driving directions, printed course descriptions, maps etc. We encourage teams to print this booklet from the event website, www.mtsirelay.com

Packets must be signed for by a member of that team. Race committee members will be on hand to answer questions.

NOTE: Teams or Ultras not showing up will forfeit their entry fees and shirts.

Waivers

All relay team runners must sign the release waiver. Except for last minute changes, all runners must register and join their team on Ultrasignup.com and sign the waiver. Runners that were last minute changes can sign the waiver at packet pickup at the school on race morning.

Substitutions

Substitutions of team members can be made as late as race day morning, but the new runner must arrive early to the start to sign the waiver. If the substitution causes your team to change divisions (based on total age or gender mix), be sure to inform the race director or starting line officials.

- Teams may choose to run the race with fewer or more than five members, but these teams will not be eligible for awards. Teams starting with 5 runners, and due to injury finish with fewer than 5, remain eligible for awards.

TEAMS

Regular teams are made up of five runners. Each member of the team will complete two legs of the relay. The total race is approximately 58 miles, with legs varying in length from 3.8 to 8.3 miles.

Team Categories

There are two competitive categories in the relay (Open and Masters) and three divisions within each category (Male, Female and Mixed). To qualify for the mixed division, teams must be of mixed gender with no more than three males. The Recreation category is for teams with other than five runners, or those just wanting to have fun and not compete for awards.

Fluids and fuel

Each team must provide their own aid (fluid replacement, gels, etc.) throughout the race. There is limited access to water on the course. Carry plenty of liquids in your support vehicle. Most legs are not accessible for the support vehicle to provide water, so each runner might want to carry their own supply. The only team aid station provided will be at the finish line. Aid stations along the course are for ultra runners only.

COURSE AND VEHICLES

Be courteous and do not interfere with the local traffic.

We have permission to hold the race, but not sole use of the highways and trails. Your compliance is imperative if we are to continue running the Mt. Si Relay & Ultra Runs.

Driving

All drivers should be alert and drive at or below posted speed limits. Leave plenty of time to arrive at exchanges.

Please be courteous of runners on the road.

- Do not drive along the road with your team's runner. Find a place to pull over safely ahead and wait to provide support (encouragement and fluids).
- Do not block any driveway.
- Do not take more than one car to any exchange point. Parking is limited at most exchanges.

Park Only in Designated Areas

See parking descriptions for each exchange. Race officials will direct parking in congested areas.

Special Note: Rattlesnake Lake You will need a Discover Pass to park at exchange 7, Rattlesnake Lake (see the exchange 7 map). Parking for this exchange can become overcrowded, especially on nice weather days, and team vehicles compete for space here with the public using the lake and trails. Obey signs and parking attendants! Runners can get out and walk to the exchange while the driver waits to park. Be patient and courteous.

Special Note: Fall City: Be particularly sensitive to avoid blocking SE 39th PL at exchange 1 & 4. Except for runners actively involved in that exchange, only one other teammate may cross Hwy. 203 (at the crosswalk) for support. Stay in the holding area there and don't block SE 39th PL. Only active runners should enter the exchange chute. While running, stay to the south side of 39th. See details on maps for legs 1, 2, 3 & 4. No relay vehicles allowed on SE 39th PL.

Respect Local Residents & Communities

While traveling through the local communities of the Snoqualmie Valley, please remember we are guests and you should treat all residents with courtesy and respect. Our good behavior and thanks to locals will go a long way toward our ability to return next year. Don't honk in residential areas, and consider the time of day when you're cheering loudly for your teammate. Use supplied portable toilets along the course, and do not litter.

Course Markings

Signs, course monitors, cones, flags or street chalk will assist you at turns and potentially confusing points on the course. However, since signs sometimes are moved or stolen, it's each runner's responsibility to understand and follow the turns and descriptions of their individual legs.

Exchange Points

Exchanges will be marked with a banner. Volunteer exchange captains will be in charge at each exchange.

The method of exchange between runners is a simple hand touch within the indicated exchange areas.

Special Note: Exchange 7 Upon approaching exchange #7 near Rattlesnake Lake, you may notice what looks like an exchange point along the trail on your left. This is actually an aid station for the Ultra runners. Proceed a little farther up the road where a parking attendant will guide you to the designated Relay parking area.

Starting Times:

Time	Group	Bib numbers
6:30 a.m.	Relay Wave	400-430

Note: All teams will start in 1 wave at 6:30 a.m.

RUNNERS

Running Order

Teams choose their initial running order, but runners must run in the same sequence for the second half of the race. For example, if a runner runs leg 2, he or she must also run leg 7. Bib numbers indicate leg numbers 1-5, and runners must wear the appropriate bib, run in sequence, and have bib visible, facing forward, throughout.

Do not impede traffic

Generally you will run on the left side of roads and the right side of trails. Runners do not have exclusive use of the roadway. While most of the relay is on the Snoqualmie Valley Trail, there are many road crossings and a few segments that are run on pavement. Treat traffic as you would on a training run and be safe!

Headphones

Headphones are not prohibited. However, 1) remember there will be traffic on the roads, and 2) volunteers might need to give you instructions. (Runners with headphones have gone right past volunteers trying to tell them how to keep on course!) If you wear headphones consider running with one ear free.

Pacers not allowed for relay: Pacing a team member or use of bicycles is not permitted. (Pacers are OK for Ultras)

Runners Injured During Race

In the event of an injury, any of the remaining runners can replace the injured runner to finish their leg. The replacement runner will tag off to the next runner at the next exchange point. If this establishes a new running order, it must be maintained in the new sequence for the remainder of the race. Once a runner drops out of the race, he or she cannot enter back into the race.

Emergencies

We will have no medical staff beyond CPR/First Aid certified volunteers present at the start/finish area.

In the event of an emergency, notify a race official, as they will be able to communicate with nearest medical personnel. If the emergency is severe, call 911, then the Race Director at 206-779-1043.

Littering & Property Damage

Any runners who are reported to have damaged or littered on private or public property may be disqualified. Toilets and trash cans will be provided at exchange points.

Follow Race Officials' Instructions

Course volunteers at exchanges are considered race officials and have the authority to disqualify a team for rule violations, abusive behavior, or a team's failure to follow instructions given by volunteers.

Visible Race Numbers

Team bib numbers must be worn and visible on the front of each runner at all times while running or on the road. Bib numbers must be pinned to the outermost layer of clothing.

Finish Line

The runner of Leg 10 must cross the finish line with bib number clearly visible. All other team members may join the last runner, but must veer left when they approach the finish line chute. Also, they may not accompany their runner in any way that causes obstruction of other runners.

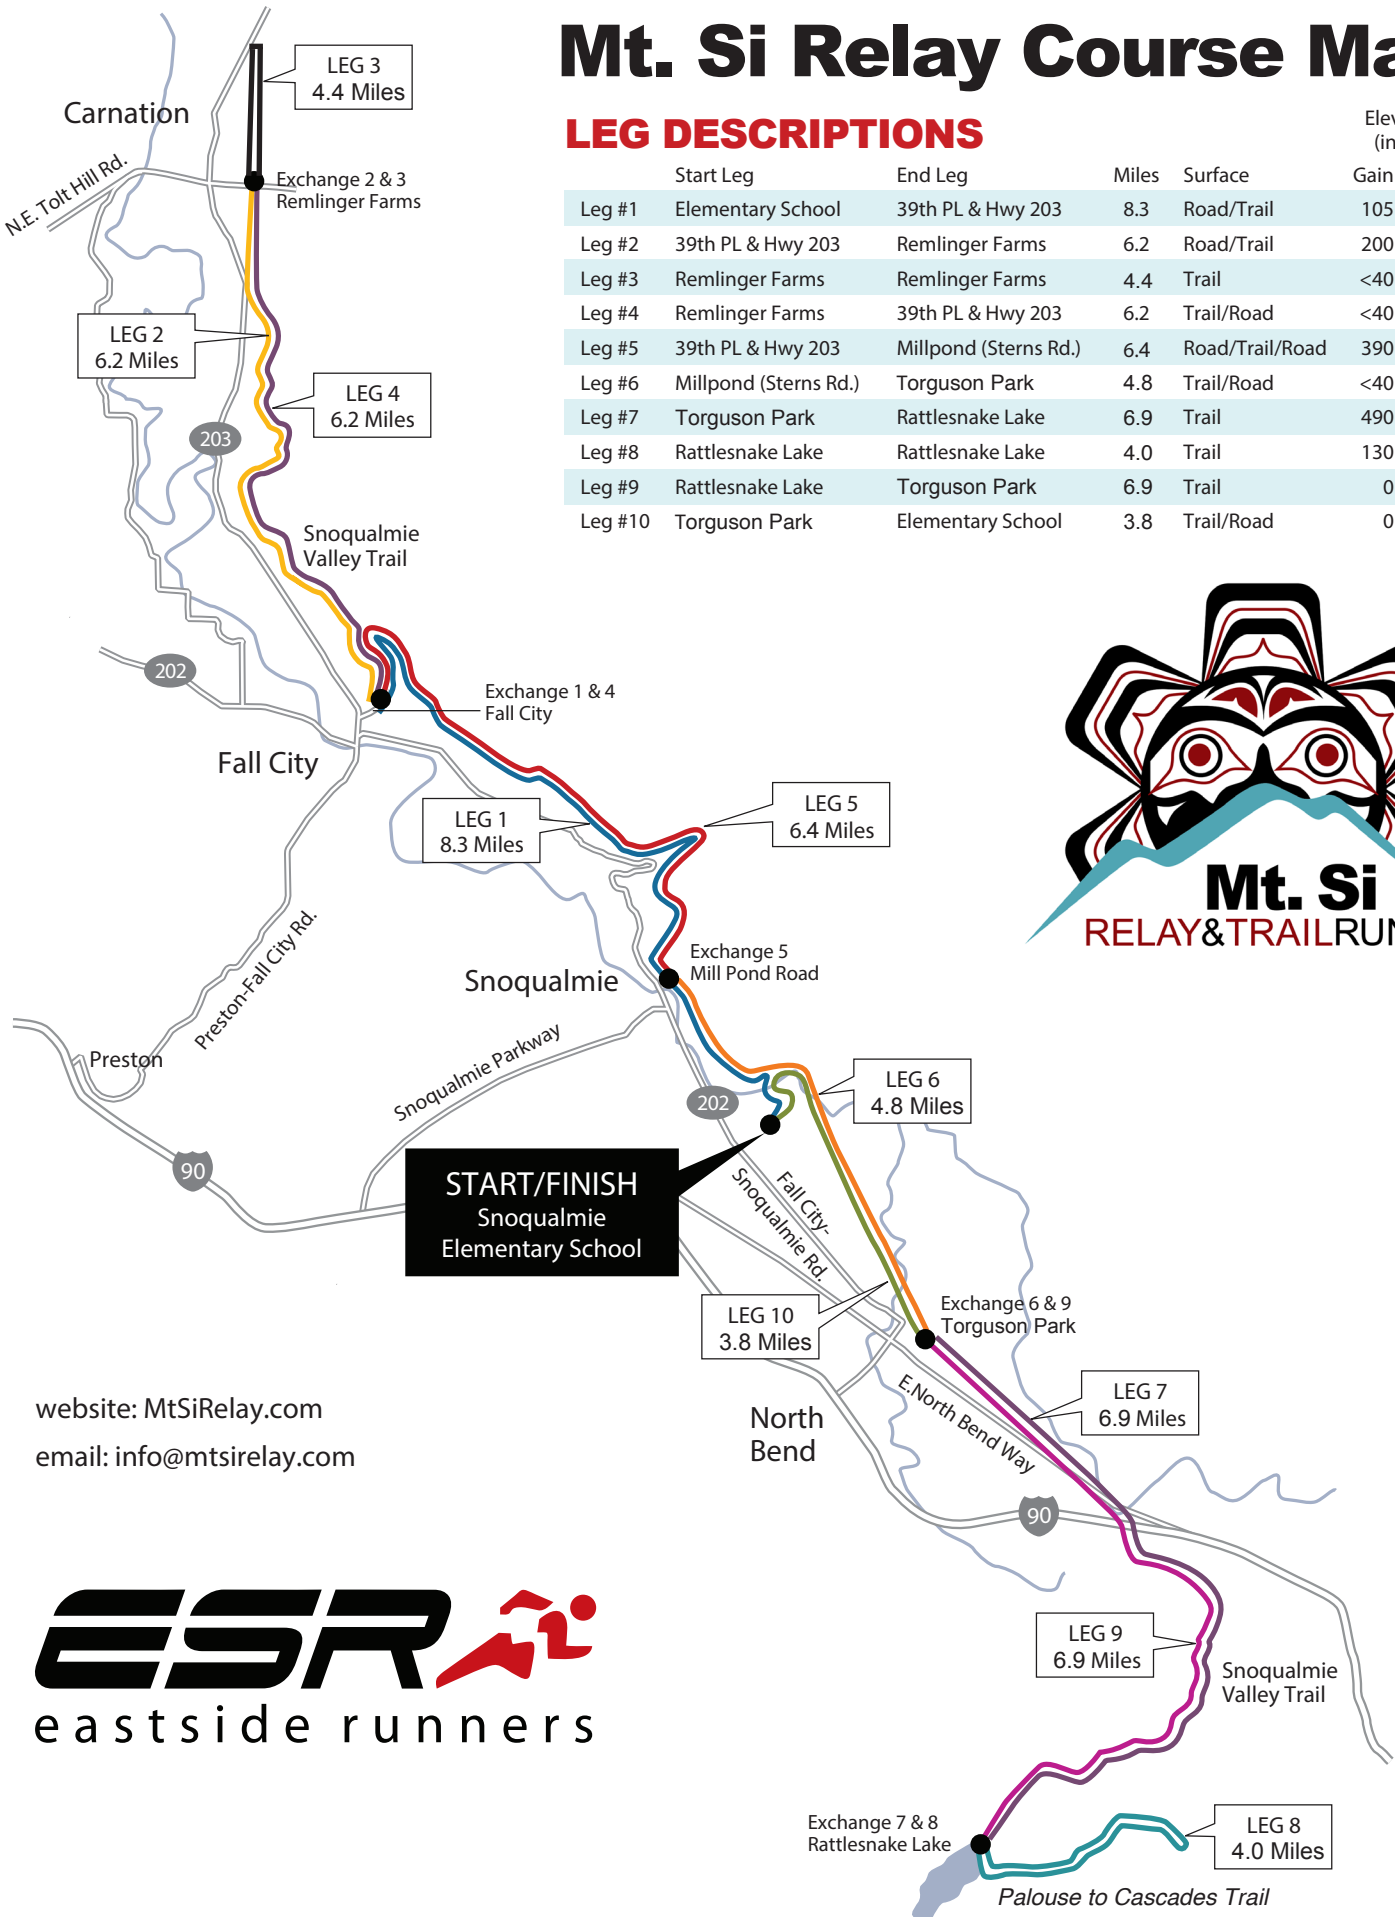

LATE FINISHERS, DOUBLE START

Double start: If a team's Leg 6 runner does not arrive at the Torgusen Exchange (#6) before 1:00 pm, teams must drive to the next exchange and immediately start leg 8 before the leg 7 runner arrives. The Exchange (#8) volunteer will record runner 7 finish and runner 8 start times and report to the timing official. See the leg 7 description for details.
